Campus Read

This year's selection is What the Eyes Don't See by Mona Hanna-Attisha. This book focuses on the researchers behind the Flint, MI water crisis. Be sure to check out the activities the Library will host during the fall semester.

Where's your zone?

We have sound level signage around the Library/Learning Commons to help you find the space that meets your needs. Look for the pillar signs and table tents that designate our Collaborative Work, Quiet Conversation, and Silent Study areas.
