Cast your sights on LakerCast

Have you checked out LakerCast lately? LakerCast is the Library's podcast platform where you can easily access video and audio recordings of various campus events dating back to 2016. We are continuously adding new content to LakerCast, so if you missed one of our speaker events, be sure to check there, or subscribe via your favorite podcast subscription app. Check it out at lakerblogs.lssu.edu/lakercast/

Library Art Gallery: "Shall Not Be Denied" - The Women's Right to Vote in America

In honor of the 100th anniversary of women gaining the right to vote in America, LSSU junior Lyndsey Johnson has put together a display to showcase Women's Suffrage in America, which will be exhibited during the month of October in the LSSU Library Gallery.

This exhibit will include copies of photographs, documents, letters & posters as well as period clothing and suffragette items such as the Suffragette Flag & sashes. It will also include information on the upcoming presidential election and information on how to register to vote, ballot instructions and information from both parties on the issues.
