

Library/Learning Commons Communiqué

Miss a copy of the Communiqué? Past issues available at <https://lakerblogs.lssu.edu/communique/>

March 2021 - Vol. 6, no. 6

Celebrate Pi Day with a Piaku Contest

 In honor of Pi Day (3.14) the Library is running a Piaku Contest. What is a Piaku? Piaku is a form of poetry, similar to haiku, but the number of syllables per line follow the digits of Pi. Submit your entry to reference@lssu.edu by noon on Friday, March 12th. The winning Piaku will be featured in next month's Communiqué, and the poet will get a pie! For full details, please visit: bit.ly/lssupiaku2021
Stop in to the Library, by the giant whiteboard, on March 11 @ 2pm for a Piaku Workshop to craft a winning piaku!

2020 & 2021 Grads: have you submitted your photo for Virtual Commencement yet? Send it to virtualcommencement@lssu.edu by March 12 to have your photo display during the May 1st Ceremonies!

Career Services

Career Week will be held the week of March 15-19, 2021. Events will include mock interviews (face to face and virtual), resume/cover letter workshops, Seamore's Closet Open House and much more. A schedule of events will be available in early March.

Library Art Gallery - March 8-26, 2021

Youth Art Month is a month of promoting art and art education in the United States, observed annually in March. This year, artwork from Sault Area Schools K-12 students will be exhibited from March 8th through 26th at the LSSU Library Gallery.

"The student sampler includes artworks that K-12 students have been working on during the last calendar year. Sault schools prides itself in a comprehensive K-12 visual arts curriculum taught by highly qualified art educators. We strive to create an atmosphere of creativity, innovation and growth in our classrooms. The artworks you see are a result of student's studio experiences." – Anne White, art teacher at Sault Area High School.

Testing Services

The GRE is available to be taken remotely at <https://www.ets.org/s/cv/gre/at-home/>
If you have any questions, please contact Testing Services via email at testing@lssu.edu for assistance.

2021-22 Campus Read

The nominations are in, and voting for the 2021-22 Campus Read will commence soon! Faculty and staff will begin voting on March 10, and the winning title will be revealed on Wednesday, March 31.

Stop in to the LSSU Library anytime after March 10th to view our display of nominated titles.

University Colloquium

Join us as the spring colloquium series continues. Events are in the Library Learning Commons are free and open to the public:

March 12 @ 3 PM
Professor Koral Fritz

What the Heck is Legal? A discussion on the evolution of cannabis laws

March 26 @ 3 PM
Professor Masoud Zarepoor

Soft Robot Limb Actuator with Embedded Liquid Metal Curvature Sensor

Academic Success Center

Study Tips for March

Use "spaced practice" to prepare for tests instead of cramming the night before.

Attend SI, drop-in to the Math Center or Writing Center or schedule a tutoring appointment for extra help with your courses.

