Campus Read 2022-2023

The Good Food Revolution
by Will Allen, Charles Wilson

A pioneering urban farmer and MacArthur "Genius Award" winner points the way to building a new food system that can feed—and heal—broken communities.

The Good Food Revolution has been selected as our campus read for the 2022-2023. There will be events connected to the book throughout the school year, and copies are available to check out from the library now!

Accessibility Services

Michigan Rehabilitation Services (MRS) will be on campus to recruit LSSU students with disabilities to sign up for services:
Thursday, April 14, from 2 PM-4 PM
By appointment

Please email Megan Norman in Accessibility Services to sign up.
mnorman1@lssu.edu

MRS is committed to working with LSSU students to provide support, resources, and preparation to reach their education and employment goals.

Study Abroad

Can I Afford to Study Abroad?

Katelyn Coon, LSSU Financial Aid Director and Lily Andrules, Regional Director ISA by WorldStides*, will talk about the ins and outs of financing a study abroad trip.

Thursday, April 7, 3pm
