

Learning Commons Communiqué

November 2016

Vol. 2 No. 3

Upcoming Events in the Learning Commons

Altered Book Art Workshops

- ◆ Wreath Workshop
Tuesday, Nov. 8, 6-8 p.m.
- ◆ Ornament Workshop
Tuesday, Nov. 15, 6-8 p.m.

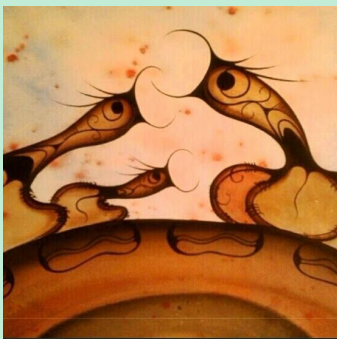

Altered Book Art Competition

- ◆ Entries accepted from now thru Mon., Nov. 28, 4 p.m.
- ◆ Entries judged on Nov. 29, followed by reception to announce the winners from 4-6 p.m.
Books and covers can be picked up at the LSSU Library.

Library Art Gallery—November 2016

Featuring: Craig “Thunder Cloud” McKay

Craig is a member of the Batchewana First Nation and expresses the stories and teachings handed down for generations in his art, working in many mediums.

Sponsored by the LSSU Native American Center in Celebration of their 30th Anniversary and Native American Heritage Month during November.

LakerCast

Recording of campus events are now available to stream or download from the new academic podcasting portal: LakerCast. Click on the link on the library web pages' side bar.

Laptops and Devices

Did you know you can check out laptops, video cameras, ipads and other educational technology from the campus library? All items are available on a first come first serve basis and check out for 14 days.

Library Hours for Thanksgiving Break

Nov. 22 (Tues.) — Recess begins at 10 pm
Nov. 23 (Wed.) - 8 am to 5 pm
Nov. 24 (Thurs.)— Closed - Thanksgiving
Nov. 25 & 26 (Fri. & Sat.)- Closed
Nov. 27 (Sun.) - 5—Midnight
Nov. 28 (Mon.) - 8 am to Midnight

Did you know November is both National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo) AND National Memoir Writing Month?

Check out our Creative Writing LibGuide at <http://libguides.lssu.edu/creativewriting> for resources to help you with your writing, including items in our collection and helpful web sites. Join our monthly memoir writing workshops on the first Tuesday of the month, or participate in Bayliss Public Library's NaNoWriMo Write-ins on Fridays and Saturdays throughout November.

