Career Week at LSSU is Mar 18-22

Career related activities throughout the week include the Michigan Works! Job Fair, Etiquette Dinner, Barnes and Noble Grad Fair and much more. Watch your email for the full schedule of events or stop by Career Services (LBR 231) for more information.

From Academic Success Center:

It's not too late to book a tutoring appointment! Tutoring services are available through the end of the semester for 100 and 200 level classes. Please stop by the ASC Front Desk to book an appointment today!

From Testing Services:

Registration for final exams is now open! If you need to take your final with Testing Services, register for an appointment at <http://bit.ly/LSSUTesting> Deadline for appointments is April 17th. Questions? Email testing@lssu.edu

MARCH LIBRARY EVENTS

Palm of the Hand Memoir Writing Workshop Mar 5th at Noon

(by the east windows). Led by LSSU Librarians, learn how to capture your life on paper, one memory at a time. Held on the first Tuesday of every month from Noon to 1 pm. Feel free to bring your lunch.

Scholar Series: Prof. Russell Searight Mar 6 at Noon

(by the east windows). The Institutionalization of Elsie Lacks: Psychiatry, Social control, and the African-American Community. Searight will include discussion on psychiatrists, psychiatric institutionalization, mental health language, and diagnosis.

Chopped: The Dessert Challenge Mar 19th from 11 am-2 pm

(by the whiteboard wall). Be a judge for the delectable desserts that will be provided by fellow students, faculty and staff. Between Mar 16-19 (including at the event), if you donate to Seamore's Food Pantry, you will receive more voting rights. Sponsored by Student Justice and Community Activism Office

In the Library Art Gallery: Heather Laurence will be displaying Life in Enchanted Realms

Creating strange creatures and ominous but whimsical worlds brings Laurence joy in her illustrations in ink and watercolor.
